

I was very happy when I was able to receive local weather and traffic on my xm radio. It is more frequent than the normal broadcasts and gives a more in depth coverage of the roads. I don't want to see this valuable service taken away. I pay for the service and if I didn't like it I would drop the service. No one else should make that decision for me.